MILLIONS BY SHAW.

He Answers Calls for Money.

Deposits to Be Made in Eleven Large Cities for a Brief Period.

Bonds of 1907 Will Be Purchased, Both Coupon and Registered.

World Is So Prosperous That It Is In Need—Planters' Part.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—Secretary Shaw had an interview today with the bankers committed, now in session in this city, and later in the day made the following announcement: "I received in the last ten days an unusually large number of letters from business men representing all sections of the country, complaining of the extraordinary high rates of interest. I have conferred during the same period by letter, or personally, with a large number of bankers scattered throughout the South and Middle West, as well as in the East."

"I have today conferred with the committee of the American Bankers Association, now in session in this city. This, gentlemen, represents Chicago, New Orleans, Atlanta, Pittsburgh, Indianapolis, Des Moines and other cities. From the best information I can get, I think the following describes the situation fairly well: 'Our blessings are the real cause of the actual stringency in money, recognized everywhere. An unusually large crop and unexampled industrial activity have created an unprecedented demand for money.'"

"The world is everywhere prosperous, and money is in great demand throughout Europe, as well as in the United States. 'We never had such a volume of credits, and they are based on an unequal volume of assets. The manufacturers of cotton are buying that staple by the trainload. The cotton planter, unlike the Western farmer, demands actual cash, and he carries it home in his pocket. The Western farmer is paid in checks, which he deposits in the bank to his credit, and therefore he does not absorb actual money as the cotton planter.'"

"This money should be returned to the banks when the planter settles with his merchant, soon after the first of January, but between now and then the cotton-consuming countries, as well as the cotton-producing country, is short of money. 'New England has sent millions to the South, and the manufacturers of cotton throughout the south have exhausted the capacity of local banks and are trying to borrow elsewhere.'"

FORM OF RELIEF. "There is no occasion for alarm, but I believe there is occasion for relief. This I have decided to grant in the following manner: I will deposit $10,000,000 in existing depositories in the cities designated below. The money will be returned, one-half on the 20th of January and the remainder on the first day of February."

WILL BUY BONDS. "I will also buy ten millions of the bonds of 1907 at the following prices: Boston, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Chicago and St. Louis, $1,000,000 each; Cincinnati, Louisville, Atlanta and Memphis, $500,000."

HUNTER IS WITHOUT WATER, FIRE OR FOOD.

Former Assistant Attorney-General Endures Terrible Hardship While Chasing Big Game—Is Rescued by Sheep Rancher from Drift Ten Feet Deep Over Camp.

EL BASO (Tex.) Dec. 10.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Confined for three days in a hunting shack without fire, food or water, with the snow banked ten feet deep about his camp, was the trying experience of Judge A. A. Freeman, former Assistant Attorney-General of the United States, who was caught in a blizzard in the Guadalupe Mountains of New Mexico, where he went on a hunt for big game.

It is doubtful if he ever would have come back alive had not a mountain sheep rancher, James DeMoss, come upon him and after a terrific fight through the drifts, succeeded in getting Judge Freeman to his ranch house.

Judge Freeman was Assistant Attorney-General under President Hayes. In 1889 he was appointed United States District Judge for New Mexico by President Harrison, holding that office for several years.

It embraces the testimony taken by the committee last summer, comments upon the evidence, and recommends the passage of a large number of bills amending the insurance laws of the State in the interest of policyholders.

The general examination was conducted by the committee, the Wisconsin Life of Madison, the Northwestern Life of Milwaukee and the Union Central Life of Cincinnati.

Committee Chairman in Oklahoma Convention Declares the Plank Will Go to the People.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M. OKLAHOMA CITY, Dec. 10.—The convention which will make the plank of the new State of Oklahoma, inaugurated its third week by unanimously adopting its first ordinance, which accepts the enabling act. Peter Hanratty, an Indian Territory delegate, district president of the United Mine Workers of America, looked after labor's rights by proposing an eight-hour law on public works, a fellow-servant law and ordinance affecting the laboring man in general.

Chairman R. L. Williams of the Committee on Regulations and Public Service, Corporations sprang a surprise when he introduced a resolution providing for a 2-cent maximum fare. Williams stated that if the plank were not in the constitution, it would be submitted separately to the people.

METCALF'S FINDINGS AGAINST LABORITES.

Sensational Report Forthcoming On the Fight Upon Japanese.

Congress Is Demanding Details of the Investigation Made At San Francisco—Special Message From the Chief Executive to Be Sent In—California Resentment Not Justified in View of Possible Rioting.

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The President soon will send to Congress a message transmitting the report made to him by Secretary Metcalf of the Department of Commerce and Labor on his investigation of the exclusion of Japanese from the public schools of San Francisco.

This report will in some respects be sensational, because it will show that complaints of the Japanese, while based on the alleged violation of treaty rights in the matter of equal treatment, were probably prompted by maltreatment of Japanese residents of San Francisco by members of labor unions and other organizations who objected to their presence as workers on the Pacific Slope.

Metcalf's report has been kept very quiet. There has been a demand from Congress for the details of his investigation, and all the facts which he was able to obtain, except a few that it will be injudicious to publish, will be laid before the legislators. Some of these facts will not be to the liking of those who have been engaged in what an administration official characterized as "an effort on the part of the labor unions to drive the Japanese from the country."

CALIFORNIA'S HASTE. Californians have resented the criticisms of the President, but it is said Secretary Metcalf's report will show some such emphatic treatment of the subject was necessary to bring the labor unions of California to a realization of the Japanese was tending.

According to a high official, if something had not been done to check the incipient lawlessness there would have been a repetition of the old Chinese riots, when Dennis Kearney held forth in the sand lots.

HURRICANE WREAKS HAVOC IN BAY CITY.

Fifty-two Mile Per Hour Storm Kills One, Injures Twenty, Demoralizes Car Service, Closes Schools and Destroys Half Million of Property.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 10.—The fiercest storm this city has experienced in many years swept over San Francisco today, causing the death of one man, injuring a score of others and doing damage estimated at half a million dollars.

Sections of ruined walls were leveled, temporary structures blown down, schools and houses unroofed, cellars and basements flooded, street-car service interrupted for several hours and all activity on the water front suspended. Forecaster McAdie of the Weather Bureau tonight said that it was the severest storm experienced on this part of the Coast for four years.

At 11 o'clock the wind reached a velocity of fifty-two miles an hour, while off the heads it was blowing sixty miles an hour. Two and six inches of rain fell during the day. The storm abated in the afternoon, but the rain is still continuing to fall tonight.

MADE REFUGEES WRETCHED. Aside from the dead and injured, and the property lost sustained by many, the worst sufferers were the inmates of the refugee camps, where misery and wretchedness reigned. Tents were carried away, flimsy temporary cabins blown down, while many of those who withstood the wind leaked badly.

Hundreds of refugees who were burned out in the big fire had their few belongings saved from the disaster, or, since acquired, utterly ruined or badly damaged. Where 1200 refugees are housed in tents and temporary houses, hundreds were driven from a week to repair them. In most of the schools the pupils had been dismissed before the storm reached it, and especially women and children were taken in and made comfortable.

All street car traffic was suspended early in the forenoon by masses of brick and steel, which had fallen into the street, carrying poles and wires with them, and the danger from tottering wires awaying in the high wind.

GREAT LINES AT FIVE PIERS.

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Bringing all of the coastwise steamship lines in which he has control to one great terminal, instead of being scattered at eleven piers, some of which are miles distant from the others, Charles W. Morse is negotiating for the five great piers now occupied by the White Star, Leyland and Cunard lines in the North River front.

STANDARD OIL BEGINS FIGHT.

FILES DEMURRER TO INDIANA STATE INDICTMENT.

Complaint Filed Contains 6248 Counts, All of Which Great Syndicate Proposes to Contest on Ground That Rate Law Repeals the Elkins Trust Act.

CHICAGO, Dec. 10.—The fight of the Standard Oil Company against the ten indictments against the Standard Oil Company of Indiana which were returned August 29, was commenced today in the United States District Court before Judge Landis.

The indictments contain 6248 counts and the Standard Oil Company has entered a demurrer. It is on the latter that the proceedings of today were based. The attorneys for the Standard Oil Company contended in support of their demurrer that Section 10 of the rate law passed by Congress June 29 repeals the Elkins law under which the government is bringing the action against the company.

Committee of City Experts Cut Estimates of Company Agents Down Twenty Millions and Present Figures Form Basis of Settlement Under New Regulating Ordinances.

CHICAGO, Dec. 10.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The top price of $50,994,782 was placed today on the tangible and intangible properties of the Chicago traction companies by the city experts, Biron J. Arnold, Prof. M. E. Coley and A. B. Dupont.

This estimate, more than $20,000,000 lower than that fixed by the experts who reported for the companies, was laid before the local transportation committee of the City Council. It is on the basis of the new figures that the traction settlement ordinance, already substantially agreed to by the companies, is to be completed.

HE SAYS SOUTHERN PACIFIC MAY HAVE TO BUILD.

States That the Company Has Not Decided Whether to Lay a Temporary Track for Its Trains Until Such Time as the Permanent Road Is Built.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 10.—In regard to the break in the Colorado River endangering the Southern Pacific tracks, General Manager E. E. Calvin said today that the reports from Yuma were not encouraging. "I suppose we will have to build a new road," he said. "The seems nothing else to do. I received a wire this morning stating that the river could again be controlled, but not in time to save our main line."

REPUBLIC DOOMED.

Sentiment in Cuba Against It.

Tobacco, Railway and Other Great Interests Opposing Native Control.

Representative Thinking Men of the Island Writing to Americans.

Secretaries Root and Taft and Some Senators All Deeply Impressed.

HAVANA (Cuba) Dec. 10.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] There seems to be a general impression here that a change has come into the policy at Washington regarding the government of Cuba.

American officials in charge of important departments say that word has been received to this effect, and that the provisional government will continue much longer than was planned. GREAT INTERESTS INTERESTED. Nothing more definite will be disclosed, except that the change has been wrought by the representations of the tobacco, railway and other great interests that it will not be safe to allow the Cubans to try, unrestrained, to govern themselves for a long time to come.

There is no question that this is the way those interests felt about it from one end of the island to the other. SENTIMENT AGAINST REPUBLIC. It is also patent that a very large and influential portion of the population, in fact, all Cubans who have property to lose, do not want another republic.

This feeling is not confined to deposed Moderates, but is entertained by the more conservative native element, that which has never taken any interest in politics. The element seems to be aroused now, not openly, for it fears reprisals if left unprotected to another independent island government, but to the hope that it can, by letters to public men in the United States, make them see the Cuban situation as its representative thinking men see it.

IMPRESSED AMERICANS. It is asserted that an impression has been made on Secretary Root, that Secretary Taft is inclined to doubt the wisdom of soon withdrawing all American control; that several Senators are convinced there is a dangerous amount of difference among Cubans as to how long another republic would last, and that the President himself is so tired of Cuba that he would be very glad if Congress took the question off his hands.

ONE LONE MAN WOULD CONVICT.

PROSPECT OF NO VERDICT IN MRS. BIRDSONG'S CASE.

Long Day of Brilliant Argument Concluded With Looking Up of the Jury—Judge Miller's Poll Shows Eleven Ready to Acquit the Defendant.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES. HAZLEHURST (Miss.) Dec. 10.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] All indications in the trial of Mrs. Angie Birdsong for the murder of Dr. Thomas Butler point to a mistrial. The jury in the case, after a long day of brilliant argument by prominent attorneys, retired tonight. At 9 o'clock, Judge Miller ordered a poll of the jury, and the result was eleven for acquittal and one for conviction, with the lone one reported holding out stubbornly.

Dispersing of a verdict tonight, the court adjourned until morning, and the jury was locked up. Attorneys for both sides now say they have little hope that a verdict will be reached at all.

Young Brown attended law school at Ann Arbor, and while there met a young woman several years his senior, whom he married. Quarrels with her caused him to transfer to the University of Chicago. She has now brought suit for divorce.

NOBEL PRIZE TO PRESIDENT.

He Devotes Sum to Secure Industrial Peace.

Services as Peacemaker Is Cause of Gift.

Norway's Parliament Awards Him Forty Thousand.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

CHRISTIANIA (Norway) Dec. 10.—The Norwegian Parliament today conferred the Nobel Peace prize upon President Roosevelt.

The American Minister, H. H. D. Pierce, made an eloquent speech, thanking Parliament in the President's name. He said that words were inadequate to express the deep emotion which he experienced at receiving this distinguished testimonial in behalf of the President, who recently had been regarded this prize as one of the greatest honors which one man in any position throughout the world could receive. The award, Minister Pierce added, would deeply appeal to the hearts of the American people. He then read a message from the President, expressing his deep thanks and saying there was no gift he could appreciate more.

The President also announced that he had concluded to use the prize of $40,000 to establish a permanent Industrial Peace Committee, with the view of maintaining industrial peace in the industrial world of nations.

TEXT OF PRESIDENT'S REPLY.

The following is the text of President Roosevelt's dispatch:

"I am profoundly gratified and touched by the signal honor shown me through your body in conferring on me the Nobel peace prize. It is no gift I could appreciate more, and I wish it were in my power to fully express my gratitude for it and to thank you for what I was able to accomplish only as the representative of the nation of which, for the time being, I am President."

"After much thought, I have concluded that the best and most fitting way to apply the amount of the prize is by using it as a fund to establish at Washington a permanent Industrial Peace Committee. The object will be to strive for better and more equitable relations among our countrymen who are engaged, whether as capitalists or wage workers, in industrial and agricultural pursuits."

"This will carry out the purpose of the founder of the prize, for in modern life it is important to work for the cause of just and righteous peace in the industrial world, as in the world of nations."

"I again express to you the assurance of my deep and lasting gratitude and appreciation."

(Signed)

"THEODORE ROOSEVELT."

The members of the Nobel committee of the Minister were approached by the President of the Parliament, who received the information that the prize had been conferred upon President Roosevelt, who had authorized the American Minister Pierce to receive it.

NORWAY BLAZES PEACE TRAIL.

The President, Gunnar Knudsen, made a short speech in which he said that the Norwegian Parliament was the first national assembly to adopt the cause of peace, which was now no longer as Utopian, as it was twenty or fifteen years ago. Leading statesmen, even chiefs of states, had taken up this cause and the United States was going into it for the first time. What Knudsen particularly stressed was the fact that the attention of the world was the work of President Roosevelt in bringing about the end of the bloody war between Russia and Japan.

Then, handing the prize to the Minister, the speaker asked him to send to the President of the United States a greeting from the Norwegian people and expressed the wish that the President might be able in the future to continue his work for peace.

The Nobel Peace Prize is awarded to the President in recognition of his services in ending the Russo-Japanese War. Candidates for this distinction must be proposed by the legislative bodies, peace organizations or universities. It is understood that the President's sponsors were Prof. H. P. Jackson, acting president of the University of Yale, Prof. Baldwin of Yale, Prof. Harberger of the University of Munich and the faculty of Georgetown University, Washington, D. C.

The Nobel Peace Prize is a part of a bequest left by Dr. Alfred Bernhard Nobel, the Swedish scientist, who died in 1896. By his will a large portion of his fortune was devoted to five annual prizes, each valued at about $80,000. They were awarded for the most important discoveries in physics, chemistry, physiology or medicine, for the most distinguished work of an idealistic tendency in the field of literature and for the best effort toward the fraternity of nations and the promotion of peace.

OTHER AWARDS.

STOCKHOLM, Dec. 10.—The formal distribution of the Nobel prizes, with the exception of the one presented to President Roosevelt, took place this evening, the recipients receiving their diplomas and gold medals from King Oscar in person. J. F. Thompson, professor of experimental physics at the University of Cambridge, Eng., was given the prize for researches in the nature of electricity. M. Moissan, professor of chemistry, at Sorbonne, Paris, was awarded the prize for his experiments in the isolation of fluorine, his researches regarding the nature of that element, and his application of the electric furnace to the service of science. Prof. Cajal and Golgi of Paris received prizes for their work dealing with the anatomy of the nervous system, and G. C. Curie, professor of Italian literature at the University of Bologna, was awarded the literature prize.

gave way under the awful strain and their building was completely wrecked. The damage will amount to $5000. A section of the roof of the Oregon Navigation Company's dock at the foot of Spear street, about 150 feet long, was blown down and the freight thus exposed was considerably damaged by the rain.

WAVES WASH DECKS.

The decks of the ferryboat Berkeley were swept by a wave as she was crossing the bay in the teeth of the gale, and several passengers were almost swept overboard. Much difficulty was experienced by the boats in making their landings, especially on the eastern side of the bay. At the narrow-gauge pier the water was so rough that the passengers were fifteen minutes getting off the boats. In some places the water was washed entirely over the piers.

The building of the Kaswell Furnishing Company on Sixteenth street, near Guerrero, was prostrated, as also were several small structures in that district of the city.

FLATS ARE OVERTHROWN.

Flats which were being erected at Valencia and Sixteenth streets were toppled over by the gale. Two other sets of flats on the same street near Twenty-fourth, which were also in course of construction, were completely wrecked.

The spire of St. Peter's Church, corner of Sixth and Alabama streets, was carried away and set down by the wind some distance further on. The roof of the Durant school on Bush and Buchanan streets, met the same fate.

Plats on the east side of Guerrero street, between Fifteenth and Seventeenth streets, collapsed under the force of the gale. Two flats on Church street, between Market and Waller streets, were blown down, and a third, on Church and Fourteenth streets, was a two-story building was being remodeled into stores, making it three stories in all. The supporting pillars were of flimsy construction, and the whole building came tumbling down.

The spire of the church on Guerrero street, which has not been overhauled since the last violent storm, collapsed. The spire of the church on Guerrero street, which has not been overhauled since the last violent storm, collapsed.

A FRIEND'S ADVICE.

Something Worth Listening To.

A young Nebraska man was advised by a friend to eat Grape-Nuts because he was all run down from a spell of fever. He tells the story:

"Last spring I had an attack of fever that left me in a very weak condition. I had to quit work; had no appetite, was nervous and discouraged."

"A friend advised me to eat Grape-Nuts, but I paid no attention to him and kept getting worse as time went by."

"I took many kinds of medicine but none of them seemed to help me. My system was completely run down, my blood got out of order from want of proper food, and several very large boils broke out on my neck. I was so weak I could hardly walk."

"One day my mother made some Grape-Nuts and induced me to eat some. I felt better and that night rested fine. As I continued to use the food every day, I grew stronger steadily and now have regained my former good health. I would not be without Grape-Nuts, as I believe it is the most health-giving food in the world. Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read the book, 'The Road to Wellville,' in pkgs. Garnet Bruen.

BERKELEY, Dec. 10.—While retreating to a group of children the story of a battle in which he was engaged, Garnet Bruen, a veteran of the Civil War, suddenly expired in his chair last night. Bruen was a private in Co. E, Sixty-ninth Regiment, New York Volunteers, at the time of the Civil War, and had been an inmate of the Soldiers' Home at Napa. He was 73 years old.

FLASHES FROM WIRES.

Fire which destroyed Wadsworth Cottage of the Methodist Deaconess Orphanage and Epworth Children's Home in Lake Bluff, near Chicago, early yesterday, imperiled the lives of forty-five inmates, and threw the 120 children in the institution into a panic. The blaze is supposed to have been started by a defective fuse. The loss is $9000.

C. Goodloe, Edgar and Edwin Berk, members of the firm of William F. Edgar and Sons of New York, sugar dealers of Detroit, yesterday in court pleaded guilty to charge relating to sugar shipments. They were fined $5000. The fines were paid. Edgar and Berk were indicted in connection with the New York Central and the American Sugar Refining Company.

PLOWING BEGINS AT SAN JOSE.

SAN JOSE, Dec. 10.—The fierce storm that visited this valley early this morning and is still continuing has done little damage to all the small towns of the valley and at the same time brought good in the shape of much needed moisture to the farms and orchards. Street car service has been seriously interrupted and a majority of telephone wires are down. All coast trains from the south are reported several hours behind time. At Market street windmill and the blacksmith shop were leveled and in Sunnyvale the big water tank of the Joshua Henry Machine Works was sent crashing to the ground.

Plowing which has long been delayed can now commence and the land made ready for spring seeding.

IRELAND'S DISCRETION.

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—Archbishop Ireland in the city at the Murray Hill Hotel. When visited by reporters last night, the archbishop stated that everybody should understand the delicacy of his position and the propriety on his part of doing any talking in regard to the subject. The address of Ireland in the city at this time is to attend the annual meeting of the National Civic Federation.

A FRIEND'S ADVICE.

Something Worth Listening To.

A young Nebraska man was advised by a friend to eat Grape-Nuts because he was all run down from a spell of fever. He tells the story:

"Last spring I had an attack of fever that left me in a very weak condition. I had to quit work; had no appetite, was nervous and discouraged."

"A friend advised me to eat Grape-Nuts, but I paid no attention to him and kept getting worse as time went by."

"I took many kinds of medicine but none of them seemed to help me. My system was completely run down, my blood got out of order from want of proper food, and several very large boils broke out on my neck. I was so weak I could hardly walk."

"One day my mother made some Grape-Nuts and induced me to eat some. I felt better and that night rested fine. As I continued to use the food every day, I grew stronger steadily and now have regained my former good health. I would not be without Grape-Nuts, as I believe it is the most health-giving food in the world. Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read the book, 'The Road to Wellville,' in pkgs. 'There's a reason.'"

Tailor Tips

The price alone of a suit does not insure comfort, fit and style. It is all in the making—the fabrics—the pains taken with the cutting and labor we put into every garment that counts. Have you planned that Christmas suit yet? Satisfaction is to be found in every Gordan suit.

Have a little confidential talk with us about that holiday suit of yours. No man is urged to buy—that is left to his good judgment. Compare our work with the work of others, and you will learn the value of good tailoring. Conservative suits for evening wear and snappy suits for business wear are Gordan specialties.

Interference.NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] After having awaited the start for more than thirteen minutes, Bobby Walthour jumped the start in the six-day bicycle race in Madison Square Garden, at 11 o'clock, by a hair-raising exhibition of riding that electrified the thirteen thousand enthusiasts present, tried unsuccessfully to regain the lead he had lost momentarily in the day upon being set back, consequently to his taking John Belmont for a partner, after McLean, his original mate, had lacerated his skull.
At the start of the sport of Walthour, Downey, last year amateur rider, clung close to the former's wheel, and the pair whirled around the track ahead of a field that was every intervening inch. He could survive the lead, despite his wounding efforts.

RARE MINERALS, MINES
AND METALLURGY.POPULAR QUERIES AND EX-PERT ANSWERS.[Answers to legitimate questions in mineralogy, metallurgy, chemistry or mining will be given here, but only when of interest to the mining commercial world. Personal questions from curio dealers and mineral collectors on rare minerals, earths or metals non-commercial value, and assays for metal will not be answered, but should be written direct to analysts and assayers. Address The Times.]

Potassa and Soda.

INDIAN (Nov. 17, 1906.—[To the Editor of The Times:] I am informed that you make an analysis, or assay, free (gratis) to prospectors. I am inclosing under separate cover samples of a find I have recently made and so far two assayers of Salt Lake City have been unable to determine as to what this rock carries. Can you help me out?Yours respectfully, F. B. (care of R. R. Agent.)ANSWER: It is a pleasure for this department of The Times to do all in its power for the boys in the hills, with whom he has been closely associated in every mining section of the United States for the past sixteen years. Your yellowish-brown specimens—all powdered together and tested, show 2 per cent of sodium oxide and 3 per cent of potassium oxide.
No carbonates present. The mass is made up of silica and iron (limo-nite). Such material as your samples is of no value commercially. Indications point to the fact, however, that potassa, soda and probably some alum stone (alunite) are to be found in the locality where the samples were taken. The stuff resembles sand (lead) carbonates.

Dumortierite.

KEENEVILLE, Nov. 21, 1906.—[To the Editor of The Times:] I am sending you under separate cover (in a cartridge box) four specimens of rock, and I would greatly appreciate any information you may give me concerning them and their value. 1, 2 and 3 are found closely associated.
Thanking you in advance for your courtesy, I remain,Respectfully yours,
T. A. M.ANSWER: Two letters are received relating to the minerals. One from Isabella. Sample (1) green, is dumor-tierite (aluminum silicate); (2) is pseudomorph, at one time garnet, erous—now hornblende with green tourmaline; (3) feldspathic (albite and orthoclase) with iron-alumina garnet; (4) a mixture of 1, 2 and 3, with impure lepidolite (lithia mica).

Ores of Gold and Copper.

NEEDLES (Ariz.) Nov. 16, 1906.—[To the Editor of The Times:] I am sending you by post today a small box containing three samples of ore from a mine nine miles from here. Can you tell if copper and what other metals are in it and if of any commercial value? The ledge matter averages eighteen inches in width. Answer in your "In the Earth" and greatly oblige me.

(MRS. M. D.)

ANSWER: The large sample is known as "peacock copper ore" among miners. It carries sulphides of iron and copper, and is also known as bor-nite. Small samples (two) are malachite and azurite. All of them carry gold.

Barite.

VICTORVILLE, Nov. 15, 1906.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Would you please classify samples I send, under separate cover (1 and 2). The weight was what attracted my attention.Yours truly,
J. B. F.ANSWER:—The samples are barite (barium sulphate or heavy spar). The material in powder and properly mixed will make a good white paint. Barite possesses a resinous, silky and pearly luster. All colors, principally yellow and red. Hardness 3. Brittle. Of tabular, columnar, acicular or pyramidal habit. Structure massive, lamellar or rounded. Fracture shelly, compact, granular, and earthy. Sp. gr. 4.2 to 4.8. Decrepitates and fuses before the blowpipe, coloring flame green-yellow and yielding fumes of sulphur dioxide.

eral Resources of the United States."

DEATH OF TEACHER.

Miss Margaret Scott, Who Went from This City to Brazil, Passes Away in San Jose.

Miss Margaret K. Scott, who left this city fifteen years ago, to take charge of a large American school in Brazil, died a few days ago at the home of her sister, Mrs. E. C. Munn, in San Jose, Cal. Miss Scott was for eight years a principal in the public schools of this city, but left here in 1891 to go to Brazil, where she continued her work until her death. She was a native of Indiana, the daughter of a Presbyterian minister, and came to California with her mother when a child. She began teaching in the Santa Clara Valley at the age of 15 years, and before coming to Los Angeles she had risen to the place of a teacher in the training department of the State Normal School at San Jose. She leaves many warm friends in Los Angeles.

CATARH SEASON

Disease Most Prevalent in the Fall Months—Simple Way to Cure.

With the cool nights of fall, catarrh troubles in Los Angeles are becoming more and more prevalent.

At the first warning of catarrh, one should begin using Hyomei. A few days' treatment at this season of the year will often prevent a serious and chronic attack of catarrh.

There is no stomach dosing with Hyomei. The virtue of its healing oils and balsams are breathed through a neat pocket inhaler that comes with every outfit, and in that way the medication penetrates to the most remote cells of the nose, throat and lungs, killing catarrhal germs whenever present, and soothing and healing any irritation there may be in the mucous membrane.

If you have a cold, or there is any offensive discharge from the nose, or tickling or dropping at the back of the throat; if there is offensive breath, raising of mucus, and smarting and irritation in the throat; if there are any of the symptoms that indicate catarrhal troubles, begin the use of Hyomei at once.

The complete Hyomei outfit costs but $1.00; extra bottles, if needed, 50 cents. We do not want anyone's money unless Hyomei gives relief and cure, and we absolutely agree that money will be refunded unless the remedy gives satisfaction.

All druggists should be able to supply you with Hyomei, or we will send it by mail on receipt of price, and every package is sold with the distinct understanding that it costs nothing unless it cures. Write us today for a symptom blank, which we will send you free, together with treatise on Catarrh and how to cure it. When you fill in and return to us the symptom blank, our consulting physician will give you the best care and attention, and write you a letter of advice without charge. The R. T. Douth Company, Buffalo, N. Y.

Beautiful Palms

Overlooking the City and the Sea

Midway between the twinkling lights of the city and the curling foam of Old Ocean's breakers, lies the most beautiful cluster of hills in Los Angeles county. Without adequate transportation facilities the march of real estate progress has passed them by. The tremendous far-reaching plans of the Los Angeles-Pacific will bring them nearer the heart of the city than Westlake Park is now. Distances must be measured by minutes, not miles. From the magnificent new station at 4th and Hill, shortly to be built by that "Wizard of Finance," E. H. Harriman, Palms will only be a matter of 15 minutes. The new coaches now building in St. Louis, will carry you through that triumph of modern engineering, the subway, to the city gates in 7 minutes, and 8 minutes more on the 4-track, broad gauge, air-line road will land you at what will inevitably become the most beautiful home center of Southern California. The Palms Land, Light and Water Co., organized under the laws of California, with a capital of $1,000,000, has purchased the Winship water plant and 379 acres of land, including every HILL-TOP in and around Palms. The above facts constitute the real estate opportunity of the decade. Lots will sell for far more than acres do now. Values have increased every week during the last month, and the Company's latest purchases had to be made at much higher prices than earlier ones. We only ask you to go out and be convinced. You can get free tickets at the Company's offices, 432 H. W. Hellman building, and 410-11 Delta building, and the Company's autos, which meet every Short-Line car, will take you to the office on Fourth street, Palms, where the representatives of the Company will gladly show you the property, discuss their plans and explain how you can get in on the "ground floor" of the best paying proposition of these remarkably prosperous times.

THE PUBLIC SERVICE.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

The City Attorney yesterday asked the Council to authorize him to institute proceedings to determine the right of street railways to carry freight through the streets.

The City Council will convene today to canvass the votes of the late city election.

By instruction of the Council, the City Attorney is to institute ejectment suits against men in the Owens River Valley, who are on city land and operating under direction of A. H. Koenig.

The opening of Darwin Avenue, from Main to Duellard, was formally abandoned by the City Council, yesterday, after a stormy hearing of advocates and protestants.

The Council yesterday authorized a $16,500 purchase of land in the Owens River Valley for use in the Los Angeles aqueduct project.

The city has instituted condemnation proceedings to secure a portion of the property of Mrs. Frances A. Jesuram for the use of the Polytechnic High School. Mrs. Jesuram is unwilling to surrender the land, and asks that the cause be dismissed.

The California Domestic Water Company is suing the county to recover taxes paid under protest, and which are alleged to be excessive.

Dan O'Neill and William McCarthy, arrested yesterday for cruelty to a horse, and sentenced to twenty days in jail, are believed to be desperate characters who came from Oakland for a career of highway robbery.

J. A. Slavin, who fought with a patrolman who arrested him for selling junk without a license, was discharged by Justice Rose yesterday.

Six small boys were arraigned before Justice Chambers on the charge of breaking open a barrel in a warehouse and stealing cut-glass, and which are alleged to be excessive.

The trial of General Manager Gabel of the Los Angeles-Pacific Railroad Company and Horace Clark, a motorman, for alleged violation of the federal ordinance, will be continued before Justice Austin today. The defense is that the federal law is not yet perfected.

At the City Hall, would settle freight right.

City may now institute quo warranto proceedings.

City Attorney Asks for Authority to Proceed With Action to Determine Standing of Street Railway Companies in Freight Hauling Matter—Question Must Be Settled.

The city is to make another effort to have the question settled as to whether the street-railway companies have the right to carry freight over their lines.

It is probable that the matter will again be carried to the courts. Yesterday City Attorney W. B. Mathews presented to the City Council a report, in which he stated that the fact that, in spite of the efforts of the City Attorney's office, this question remains unsettled, and that as it must be settled some time or other, for the good of both the city and the companies, the sooner this is done the better it will be. He advised that either of two courses could be adopted to bring about such a settlement, as follows:

First—Adopt a resolution declaring that the transportation of freight over street-railway lines in this city should be stopped, and, backed by that resolution, the police department of the city will prevent the operation of freight cars over street railway tracks, at least until restrained by an injunction or decree of court of competent jurisdiction; or Second—Adopt a resolution authorizing the City Attorney to apply in the name of the city to the Attorney-General for leave to institute proceedings in quo warranto against various railway companies engaged in carrying freight over their lines in this city, to determine the rights of those companies in that regard.

The Council decided to take the subject under advisement for ten days, in order to determine which procedure to recommend, although Assistant City Attorney Hewitt, who is also City Attorney-elect, stated that his preference would be the quo warranto proceedings.

Voting Machine Demand.

The demand for $22,451 as payment for the voting machines, over which there has been a long-drawn-out controversy, bobbed up in the City Council again, yesterday. A letter from City Treasurer Workman was presented, stating that he refused to pay the demand because it had the Mayor's rubber stamp signature attached to it. Attached to the communication was a letter from Mayor McLaughlin to the City Treasurer, in which he says this rubber stamp signature was attached to the demand, "as a matter of form."

The Mayor says: "At the time this contract was entered into I returned the money to the City Council without my approval, and I will disapprove of the matter, and would therefore ask you to withhold payment of the demand when the same is presented." The whole matter was referred by the Council to the City Attorney.

Honors for Blanchard.

Councilman E. L. Blanchard of the Ninth Ward, during his recent visit to the city, was presented with a beautiful bouquet in a handsome vase of Venetian glass, which was placed on his desk, and attached to it was a photograph of the Ninth Ward stationmaster bearing this inscription: "To the man whom our people delight to honor, To the Hon. E. L. Blanchard, Councilman of the Ninth Ward." In presenting this memento as a tribute of respect and appreciation of his able and kind acts in the interests of the Ninth Ward, the speaker said that while flowers are beautiful, they are to more so than character, and while their fragrance may be lost on the desert air, the influence of good characters such as yours never die. Presented by the King's Highway Improvement Association of the Ninth Ward.

Darwin-Avenue Muddle.

The proposition to abandon all proceedings for the opening of Darwin Avenue, from Main to Duellard streets, was thoroughly thrashed out before the City Council, yesterday. There was a large delegation present from the property owners of the district, and both sides presented their pleas. Councilman Ford declared that his

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

SHE OPPOSES CITY'S PLAN.

WOULD KEEP HER HOME PLACE UNDIVIDED.

Los Angeles Wants Part of Mrs. Jesuram's Property for Use of Polytechnic High School and Institutes Condemnation Proceedings—Price Offered Not Satisfactory to Her.

The city's suit against Mrs. Frances A. Jesuram to condemn part of her home place on Washington street for the use of the Polytechnic High School was on trial yesterday before a jury in Department Three, Judge Wilbur presiding with Judge-elect Fred Hausman.

The city offers to pay $30,000 for the land, but Mrs. Jesuram is unwilling to accept that price, she asks that the cause be dismissed, but that, if she is compelled to surrender half of her property, she shall receive the reasonable value of the land, with compensation for damage to the balance of the plot. She claims to be a reasonable price.

Mrs. Jesuram owns a frontage of 176 feet on Washington street, and the Polytechnic High School, with 500 feet frontage on Flower street and 176 feet frontage on Twentieth street. The city wants 300 feet frontage on Flower and 176 feet on Twentieth street, upon which to erect machine shops, an engine-room, and a planning mill.

If this big slice is taken from the property, Mrs. Jesuram's residence, which her home will be damaged by the new division of the land to the extent of $10,000, and by the construction of shops to the extent of $15,000. The actual value of the 300 feet frontage on Flower street, she claims to be $20,000.

Yesterday afternoon testimony was put in regarding values. The defense claimed that the value of the property had no money to pay for the land even if a jury should fix the charges, but the city would not admit this testimony. The contention of the defense is that the matter of the school is under the jurisdiction of the Board of Education, as distinguished from the city government.

The hearing in the cause will be continued today.

Will Canvass the Votes.

Today the City Council will begin the canvass of the votes cast at the late city election. The session will convene at 10 o'clock in a warehouse, non-partisan politicians, headed by M. Lissner, was on hand yesterday afternoon, and doubts will be present today to watch for an opportunity to count out Clamplitt of the Second District, and the Councilman's seat for Van Degrift.

Ejectment Suits.

The City Attorney yesterday was authorized to institute suits in ejectment against certain men in the Owens River Valley, operating under the direction of A. H. Koenig, this city, and representing persons or corporations whose names are not known. The City Attorney states that these men are engaged in acts of trespass on lands of the city in Inyo county, and this suit is being taken for the protection of the city's interests in possible future developments.

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

SHE OPPOSES CITY'S PLAN.

WOULD KEEP HER HOME PLACE UNDIVIDED.

Los Angeles Wants Part of Mrs. Jesuram's Property for Use of Polytechnic High School and Institutes Condemnation Proceedings—Price Offered Not Satisfactory to Her.

The city's suit against Mrs. Frances A. Jesuram to condemn part of her home place on Washington street for the use of the Polytechnic High School was on trial yesterday before a jury in Department Three, Judge Wilbur presiding with Judge-elect Fred Hausman.

The city offers to pay $30,000 for the land, but Mrs. Jesuram is unwilling to accept that price, she asks that the cause be dismissed, but that, if she is compelled to surrender half of her property, she shall receive the reasonable value of the land, with compensation for damage to the balance of the plot. She claims to be a reasonable price.

Mrs. Jesuram owns a frontage of 176 feet on Washington street, and the Polytechnic High School, with 500 feet frontage on Flower street and 176 feet frontage on Twentieth street. The city wants 300 feet frontage on Flower and 176 feet on Twentieth street, upon which to erect machine shops, an engine-room, and a planning mill.

If this big slice is taken from the property, Mrs. Jesuram's residence, which her home will be damaged by the new division of the land to the extent of $10,000, and by the construction of shops to the extent of $15,000. The actual value of the 300 feet frontage on Flower street, she claims to be $20,000.

Yesterday afternoon testimony was put in regarding values. The defense claimed that the value of the property had no money to pay for the land even if a jury should fix the charges, but the city would not admit this testimony. The contention of the defense is that the matter of the school is under the jurisdiction of the Board of Education, as distinguished from the city government.

The hearing in the cause will be continued today.

Will Canvass the Votes.

Today the City Council will begin the canvass of the votes cast at the late city election. The session will convene at 10 o'clock in a warehouse, non-partisan politicians, headed by M. Lissner, was on hand yesterday afternoon, and doubts will be present today to watch for an opportunity to count out Clamplitt of the Second District, and the Councilman's seat for Van Degrift.

PROSECUTORS CALLED LAX.

COMPLAINT THAT THE POLICE ARE HANDICAPPED.

Deputy District Attorney Refuses to Issue Complaint Against Walter Cutts, Who is Accused of Forgery. Patrolmen Allege That They Frequently Have Difficulty in Getting Prisoners Into Court.

Amazing desire to refrain from prosecution, a characteristic which police and department officials have frequently attributed to the city's and county's prosecutors in the Central station, was shown yesterday by Deputy Dist. Atty. McCormack in the case of Walter L. Cutts, a patrolman, who had captured Cutts and found skeleton keys, checks alleged to be forged, and a bottle of "knock-out" drops in his possession, worked all day trying to get a complaint against the young ex-convict and failed. The patrolman will continue his efforts today and it is necessary to go before a Justice of the Peace and swear to a complaint in the case.

Cutts is the son of a reputable Los Angeles family. He has been in the State penitentiary. He has, according to the statement of his father, ruined his own home. His mother is now working for wages because of her son's past.

Yesterday morning Patrolman Bottorff found Cutts sneaking along a rear porch, near the corner of Third and Main streets. The young man had with him a can of cream which he is alleged to have stolen. Bottorff arrested him. The officer says that the prisoner had passed on his landlady a forged check, which was made out in the name of the prisoner's mother, Helen Cutts.

The Deputy District Attorney refused to give a complaint for petty larceny, uttering fraudulent checks or forgery. The patrolman finally found the prisoner's father, who was candid in his statements as to the son's alleged crimes, and said that he would testify against his son as to the forgery, though he did not wish to swear to a complaint in the case.

A second visit to McCormack by the patrolman, now possessed of this information, brought no result. The prosecutor demanded that the father be brought to him, the officer says, as he wanted to talk with the parent and find out whether it would be possible to send the prisoner to some other institution than the penitentiary.

We are, said the father of a local bank on which Cutts is said to have issued a fraudulent check, worried to death by this sort of thing. I do not see why it exists to such an extent. We would do much to have it stopped. It is the basis of our existence.

Police department officials state that bank officials could get some measure of real protection if the department could only get a few prosecutions. They say that yesterday's case is but one of many in which prosecution has been withheld. The department is not willing to prosecute. This unwillingness on the part of the District Attorney's office and the City Prosecutor's office is a constant aggravation to patrolmen, detectives and men higher up in the service than they.

Towboats carrying 2,500,000 bushels of coal left Pittsburg harbor last night for southern ports, making about six million bushels sent south in two days. It is estimated that within the past month over 2,000,000 bushels were shipped south.

Fighter Discharged.

J. A. Slavin, who fought fiercely with Patrolman Denham while the latter was taking him to the central station on a charge of selling without a license last Saturday, was discharged by Justice Rose yesterday. Denham had charged the man with battery.

In Trouble from Drinking.

Tears fell over a grimy face of Police Justice Chambers' court yesterday afternoon, and loud lamentations were heard. Six small boys and six sorrowful mothers did the weeping and lamenting. Six nationalities were represented in the company.

The boys were charged with having broken open a barrel of cut glass and with stealing a part of its contents last night. The boys were placed in a street railway warehouse. John Higue, one of the boys, who had been released during the last stages of police investigation, was rearrested when it was found that he had taken the other five boys to be charged with the same offense. When the boys appeared in court yesterday, Jesse Daniels, a negro, was put on the stand last, and his testimony was punctuated by his mother's sobs.

"He was always a good boy," she wailed, "and it's always that way. They always get him into trouble."

Daniels, Martin Walsh and Harry Schute were released on $30 bonds, and the remaining three boys were committed to the juvenile court. Frank Dumark, Alfred Gatt and John Higue were placed under the surveillance of their parents until they meet justice at the same tribunal.

Fender Case Still On.

T. R. Gabel, general manager of the Los Angeles-Pacific Electric Company, and Horace Clark, a motorman, are now on trial before Justice Austin for alleged violation of the new fender ordinance. The test case will be continued this morning.

The company's defense for not placing new fenders on its cars was indicated at the hearing yesterday morning. A model of a new fender was exhibited, and its inventor, Alfred L. Eachert, was placed on the stand to explain its workings. It was stated that the fender is not quite ready for use, and that the company was waiting until it was perfected.

The model of the new fender was tested by using a cigar instead of a man.

WOMEN'S CLUBS.

Out of the East.

The East and West met together yesterday at the Ebell Club. The curtain went up, and all the rainbows of the Orient were revealed in the talk of Phares Anton Behannese, a native of Damascus and a lecturer of note. The stage was a brilliant spectacle, with a background of rug and gay eastern scarfs, and the part-colored garments of the several types of the Semitic race.

A faint clinging aroma was in the air, the incense of the East; veiled women, and swarthy men, a bride in all her glory, the bridegroom, and several dark-eyed beauties were grouped about, the whole entertaining pageant ending with a marriage feast.

The lecturer is a well-known man in his own country. He founded the national library of Syria at Zahlah, Mt. Lebanon, which library has broadened into the Oriental University. He is learned in the lore of the ages, and has been in America long enough to be somewhat witty at the expense of America and American customs, always most courteously administered.

"The persistence of oriental customs," began Mr. Behannese, "has outlasted the odors of Lebanon, and the pyramids of Egypt. As of old, the eastern cities present every form of garment that a frenzied tailor in delirium might invent, every struggling figure on the crowded street is a resolving view of kaleidoscopic color, and the very clothing worn by the Arabs of today might have been stripped from the bodies of the patriarchs."

Mr. Behannese referred to the customs of the people as having been preserved in their integrity as religiously as the cut and color of the clothing, the orientals on the stage joining the lecturer in illustrating the various salutations and throwing much light upon the Savior's injunction to "salute no man by the wayside." It certainly took too much time.

The various types as explained by their interpreter were most interesting, the Arab, that rover of the desert, who has preserved the primal traits more than his brother of the cities, was shown as the most intellectual and polished of his race. Some great man said of this type that no drawing-room of Paris could confer such refinement on a man of his type. Mr. Behannese in commenting upon it said, "We must remember that while Paris was still unborn, encyclopedias were being written in Antioch."

A Syrian shepherd such as watched his flocks by night when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, and who in the days of David was studying the stars and reflecting upon the mysteries of reincarnation, stood upon the platform of the Ebell yesterday. Two Jewish women ground barley in a mortar just as it was ground by Ruth, the Moabitess, and her mother-in-law, Naomi. The curious eastern chant sung that accompanied this grinding was sung by the most fascinating eastern host of them all. "I know she is a pure type," murmured an Ebell lady, gazing upon the girl's radiant beauty. "This is a Syrian song, sung by an American girl," said the lecturer, immediately after, and the lady and some others changed their minds.

A number of the people who wore the eastern garment were distinctly American, but there was enough of the real oriental to make it most realistic and attractive. The impersonators seemed to be enjoying the performance themselves, the Syrian shepherd, who, by the way, is a Syrian, seemed immensely amused to behold his customs dramatized in such a manner.

The bridal scenes were most entertaining, and after the feast the Ebell members were the guests of the entertainers, and drank real oriental coffee and ate the sweetmeats of the bridal feast in Syria, the eastern courtesy being the most delightful part of the whole.

WANT PORT SURVEYED.
The Chamber of Commerce will hereafter hold regular meetings twice a month, instead of weekly. This change was decided upon at the last meeting, for the reason that the members of the board of directors are all business men and they find it impossible to devote more than two days a month to the business of the chamber. C. M. Gidney was selected as delegate to represent the Chamber of Commerce at the meeting in San Diego on December 23.

A resolution was adopted unanimously declaring that the best interests of the commerce of the Pacific Coast and particularly of the commerce of Santa Barbara, require that a survey of said port be made by the Federal government, with a view of ascertaining its needs, the character of the work that will meet those needs and the estimated cost thereof.

In the past twenty years The Midwinter Times has been the direct means of bringing thousands of families to this section.

To promise that the forthcoming MIDWINTER NUMBER shall be better than that of last year would be promising too much. The Times has set a high standard for these special numbers. To excel further is something asking a two-minute trotter to beat its own record. However, The Times promises—that the forthcoming number shall be, in every respect, as good as any that has preceded it—as interesting, as attractive, as reliable. There will be a chart to explain them. The MIDWINTER NUMBER, being specially intended for circulation among the east of the mountains, who are thirsting for reliable information about the Land of Promise, will be replete with such set forth in readable, attractive form, masses of dry statistical material, difficult of mental digestion and assimilation, being as much as possible.

The Truth is Good Enough

Above all else, The Times prides itself that in these numbers no exaggerated statements of the advantages and attractions of Southern California are made, to lure unwary people to their present places of residence. From the beginning the motto of The Times has been "the truth is good enough." Of the thousands who have been brought to this section by a perusal of the MIDWINTER NUMBER, not one can honestly say that he was deceived by delusive or exaggerated statements. Rather may the arrivals say, with the Queen of Sheba, that the truth is half been told them about the glories of the land where they now go down.

A Mammoth Number

The forthcoming MIDWINTER NUMBER will consist of six or seven bound magazine sections, of 32 pages similar in form to the Sunday Times Magazine, and containing about 200 pages. This, in addition to the regular sheets. These 200 pages—there may be more—are equal in volume to seven ordinary books of 300 pages each, 30 words to the page.

Illustrations

Those who saw the MIDWINTER NUMBER were specially enthusiastic over the fine illustrations. An eminent Eastern publisher declared that number to be the thing of the kind ever put forth from a fast printing press. In the forthcoming number special attention will be given to the illustrative feature. There will be 50 illustrations, executed in the highest style of the engraving art, showing, at a glance, the leading features of Southern California, esthetic and material, so that the Easterner, who over this number, may feel himself, on arriving here, a familiar surroundings.

Some of the Contents

Advertising

It goes without saying that a publication of this kind will be read by a hundred thousand or more persons, and grants to Southern California, offers an exceptional opportunity to those who wish to catch the attention of the people. All advertisements are attractively displayed, but to be received early. Those who send in their advertisements during the closing days of December must take their chance of being found "among those present." The latest date on which an advertisement of any kind can be accepted, for insertion in the MIDWINTER NUMBER, is December twelfth.
